For Immediate Release Wed., Jan. 18, 2017

WHO: CWCS joins Gov. Dannel Malloy and Anti-Trafficking Advocates

WHAT: Press Conference announcing launch of public/private partnership to combat human trafficking

WHERE: Marriott Hotel, 200 Columbus Blvd., Hartford, CT (Room A)

WHEN: 10 a.m. Thursday, Jan. 19, 2017

WHY: P.A. 16-71, passed in the 2016 legislative session, requires hospitality industry establishments in Connecticut to provide training to help their staff identify possible warning signs of human trafficking. The State of Connecticut is teaming up with private organizations to provide this training program for hotel and motel industry personnel.
